Mahalo Leatrice Kauahi and Team! HOLOKŪ BALL 2004 - "Na Lei O Hawai'i

2004 HONOREES!

Eloise Analika Bruns

Aaron Mahi

Freda Gomes

T.B. Lyons, III

An elegant evening to remember!

It was a wonderful moment in time! So nostalgic! The women adorned in their beautiful holokū, men with their dinner jackets and aloha shirts...the music of the Royal Hawaiian Band...misty rain...aroma of just about every kind of flower you can think of...pikake, ginger, pakalana...a beautiful holokū display by Princess Ka'iulani Fashions...mahalo Jill Cullinan, the tables were decorated with beautiful orchid plant centerpieces from the Island of Hawai'i. Our Honorees Eloise Analika Bruns, Aaron Mahi, Freda Gomes (represented by Henry), and T/B/ Lyons, III entered with a welcoming chant. The Pule and Doxology were sung by the guests and followed by our own Kaiolohiaomamala HCCH Choir led by Manu Boyd, in He Lei No Honolulu and Aha Mele Competition Song: Ka Ua Loku. Mahalo to Henry Gomes Chairperson of our Scholarship Program and guestspeaker.

The Holokū Parade!

We had so many members entered. Aunty Eloise Bruns, Aunty Ethelyn Kaaihue, Muriel Thurston, Leimomi Khan, Marlene Ebeo, .. Congratulations to our President Anita Naone for 2nd Place in her lovely white eyelet Holokū. It was the "icing on the cake" to have ended our Holokū Parade with sisters Leatrice Kauahi and Louise Gerboc bowing together on the stage.

The Silent Auction!

Mahalo to Roy Brooks, Anita and Allen Naone, Dorothy Williams, Alice Froiseth, Maragaret Van Gieson, Leatrice, Marlene Ebeo, TB Lyons, and Leimomi Khan, that helped do calling and/or provided donations. Special acknowledgements to Maylene and Clem and their granddaughter, Tasha-Leigh Chang for providing set-up and sales for the evening. Mahalo Mike Kelly for being the #1 customer to the silent auction that night! We appreciated that. Over $3,900 will be added to our scholarship fund.

WHO'S WHO?

It seemed like everyone was there and in the midst of laughter there was Bucky Leslie. Of course we all look forward to seeing what he was wearing at this event! You go Bucky! Glancing around there was Leatrice and Louise making sure everyone was greeted. Wanda Camara and Tina Haight registering the guests. I saw Momi Jones with Mike in his dinner jacket. TB Lyons and his lovely guest Betsy were looking over the silent auction. Aunty Margaret Boyd watched over the brand new ukulele in the silent auction. It was funny because all evening Anita Naone, TB Lyons, and Mike Kelly were outbidding each other for the ukulele, at the end, Dorothy Williams out-bid them all! Mahalo to the whole team who made this event possible: Margaret and Don Van Gieson-RSVPs; Louise Gerboc-Holokū Parade; The Enoka

Ohana-Silent Auction; graced by the lovely Mahealani Kamau'u; Bucky for centerpieces. I caught a glimpse of Charley Rose. Aunty Sarah Kauka came over and gave us a kiss; Aunty Katherine Farm and Dawm Farm-Ramsey hand-in-hand at the silent auction admiring Nake'u Design Muumuus; got a peek at Marsha Bolson; the lovely Ulu Parker; sisters Nani Barboza and Roberta Oneha, of course our EE and Betty Lono; M/M Williams parents of Leatrice Kauahi; missed Roy Brooks who was on a trip, but Stan Salangdron came. I know there was a lot of us there, and if I missed you, e kala mai. (A closing meeting is tentatively scheduled for Sunday, May 2...someone will be in contact with committee about this meeting.)

The choirs for both clubs sang and the services continued with the presentation of ho'okupu at the crypt. Refreshments were hosted by HCCH after the celebration.

ALERT! PROTECT YOUR CREDIT CARDS, ASSETS & IDENTITY!

Keep a list of your credit cards and company contact phone numbers in a safe place.

Signing your credit cards! Rather than signing your name on the back of your credit cards, write "ask for picture ID" instead.

Checks! Rather than your full name on your checks, use your initials and last name (The thief will not know how you sign your checks, but the banks will) AND... when writing checks to pay on an account, do not put the full account number, just the last 4 digits on the "For" line (The Credit Card Companies will know your number).

ATM users! Use caution when taking out monies from ATM machines. It has been reported that thieves have found ways to attach devices to ATMs that extract your account and pin numbers from a distance.

For stolen cards!

1. Call HPD and make a report
2. Call credit reporting agencies to place a fraud alert! Be sure to note the person you reported your fraud alert to.
  - Equifax: 1-800-525-6285
  - Experian (former TRW): 1-888-397-3742
  - Trans Union: 1-800-680-7289
  - Social Security Admin. (Fraud Line) 1-800-269-0271
3. Then call your credit companies and report your cards stolen.

Mahalo Leimomi and Aunty Gladys Rodenhurst for sharing!

KAU INOA NATIVE HAWAIIAN REGISTRY

Submitted by Tomi Chong

In February, the Office of Hawaiian Affairs contracted Hawai'i Maoli to serve as the repository of registration forms for the Kau Inoa Native Hawaiian Registration program as part of a campaign to build our Hawaiian nation. Since then, we have added a new staff member Beverly Kamahale, as the project assistant. Bev's position is dedicated to the Kau Inoa program.

Hawai'i Maoli is the 501(c)(3) nonprofit entity of the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs, whose purpose is to support the Association, its five Councils and member clubs. Tomi Chong, member of Hawaiian Civic Club of Honolulu, serves as the Executive Director. Harriett Roxburgh of the Prince Kuhio Hawaiian Civic Club is the Administrative Assistant.

The Kau Inoa Native Hawaiian Registration is for all Hawaiians of all ages. The Kau Inoa Native Hawaiian Registration program and other related activities will be facilitated by the Native Hawaiian Coalition, representatives of Hawaiian organizations, service providers and other community groups and island representatives. Hawai'i Maoli is prohibited from participating in political activity, therefore, will not advocate or promote any self-governance model. But, we do encourage you to learn more about the process and get registered. "It is important that Hawaiians take this effort seriously," says Tomi Chong. She continues, "We have to step up to the plate and find our place in this process, participate and encourage family and friends to do the same."

If you are interested in learning more about the Kau Inoa Native Hawaiian Registration program, or would like a Kau Inoa registration form and/or brochure, please call Hawai'i Maoli at (808) 394-0050, or fax request to (808) 394-0057, or email request to hawaiiamaoli@hawaii.rr.com.
