BATTLE OF NUUANU

The 210th anniversary of the renowned battle of Nuuanu, will be observed starting at dawn (5:00 a.m.) at the Nuuanu Pali lookout on Saturday, April 30. Viewed by historians as significant, it was the last battle Kamehameha the First ever fought. He became sole ruler of the Hawaiian archipelago in 1810. The ceremony will follow traditional Hawaiian protocol, conducted by Kahuna Nui Keola Lake of Pu`ukohola Heiau.

The public is invited. The history of the battle of Nu`uanu as well as other stories of the area will be told on site from 8:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. The event, sponsored by Na Papa Kanaka o Pu`ukohola

Heiau, will include representatives of Ali'i Koa units of O`ahu, Maui and Hawai`i, as well as other Native Hawaiian organizations and Heila Halau.

HOKULEA

On Sunday, May 1, 2005, for the first time in its 30-year history, the Hokule'a will sail into Kailua Bay to land on its shores. The Hokule'a is doing so to honor the work of 600 children in four Kailua area schools who are working hard on a project to learn how to restore Kailua Bay to a pristine state. We anticipate thousands of people throughout the day to view, learn, and explore the dozens of exhibits and activities of the event and to enjoy spending time with family and friends. Dubbed the MalamaKailua Festival, this event will feature Hawaiian cultural exhibits and games, environmental and historical exhibits, educational exhibits and interactive games, a variety of food, Hawaiian crafts, and Hawaiian musicians and hula performances.

In the event that you cannot attend but would like to volunteer, please contact the overall event coordinator, Lauren Avery, at Le Jardin Academy at 261-0707 extension 233 or at lavery@lejardinacademy.com. Me ke aloha pumehana, Terry George

Please see the attached reservations form for convention attendees. Individuals should make their reservations early.

HCCH GOES A FLOAT!

HCCH members Clem and Maylene Enoka will be Co-Chairing the annual Kamehameha Day Parade Hawaiian Civic Club's Float this year. The parade is scheduled for Saturday, June 11, 2005, and this will be the 89th year for this parade. The parade route is over a four mile route beginning at Richards Street to Punchbowl, Ala Moana, Kalakaua and ending at Kapiolani Park. The theme for this year's parade is "Keepers of the Treasurers!"

Planning has begun. Designers are Dwayne Jeremiah and Leonard Santos, assisted by an architect, carpenter, welder, mechanics, and those who will provide the safety aspects of the float.

Over the next few weeks, HCC Presidents will be receiving the official invitation, inviting our HCC members to participate either in donations or volunteering. Included will be a schedule of the decoration activities, to include times that volunteers can learn how to attach the foliage and/or flowers prior to the actual float decoration days. Though a big assignment, the Enoka's goal is to involve as many HCC members as possible, participating, and provide the winning float!
