SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

(Henry Gomes, Momi Jones, Blaine Fergerstrom)

The Scholarship Committee has received approximately 60 applications for scholarship this year by the May 15 cut-off date. The committee is currently reviewing the applications to make sure each applicant meets the criteria for an award. The essay questions covered the issue of the Native Hawaiian Bill. The applicants have until June 15 to submit their final school transcripts before a final determination is made on the awards for 2007-2008. We have students applying to various universities across the nation including Duke University, California Maritime Academy, South Dakota State University, Patrick Henry College, Pepperdine University, University of Iowa, University of Houston in addition to Unversidad Catholica de Paris. A fair portion of the applicants have also applied to the University of Hawaii-Manoa and Chaminade University. The committee will be meeting late June to determine the qualified recipients and will report its final awards in the club's next newsletter. It is very exciting to note that more and more students of Hawaiian ancestry are college bound and Prince Kuhio would be very proud of this. Anyone interested in serving on the Scholarship Committee should contact Henry Gomes (hgomes@chaminade.edu) or Anita Naone at 438-2797. Momi Jones, Scholarship Comm.

AOHCC CONVENTION

Location: ALASKA, Anchorage
Hotel: Hilton Anchorage
Dates: 14-21 October 2007

ASSOCIATION OF HAWAIIAN CIVIC CLUBS

The AOHCC has issued information regarding the annual convention which will be held in Alaska. Our club needs to determine who will be attending, fundraising for attendees etc. Please note it appears that HCCH may not be participating in the Aha Mele Competition this year since Manu will not be available to attend the convention. Will continue to keep everyone informed as we move forward. Aloha Anita Naone, HCCH Pelekikena.

2007 HCCH Convention Chairperson: Maylene Enoka

Phone: (808) 426-1073, Cell: 255-1431

Email: maenoka@hawaii.rr.com

Aloha! ... Over the upcoming months prior to convention, I will be working with the HCCH Convention Committee, Board of Directors and Members to coordinate convention meetings and fundraising events; and also with Leimomi Khan AOHCC President, in preparation for Convention. There are so many exciting opportunities for our membership to experience at this next convention in ACHORAGE ALASKA! Please know that I will make every effort to keep you informed, that will encourage you to represent our club at the convention too!

Aloha Maylene Enoka

This year's convention offers us the opportunity to network with and to learn the culture and governance of another native indigenous people, the Alaska Native. The Association and the mainland council are working hard to bring the members an interesting, informative, and fun convention. Alaska is a unique state offering wonderful sightseeing opportunities, unlike that ever seen in Hawaii. Set in a winter wonderland, the mainland council has arranged a full day tour of Anchorage, Alaska; and for the first time ever, civic clubs are being asked to ho'ike an art or craft. Alaska natives are being invited to attend an afternoon with our members. Please come, enjoy, and support the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs. Aloha Leimomi Khan,

AIR RESERVATIONS

Hawaiian Vacations, in support of the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs Convention, has offered us a round trip price of $563.12 plus taxes of $64.88, for total of $628 on their flight that departs Hawaii on Friday, October 12, at 4:00 p.m., and returns on Saturday, October 20, at 2:15 a.m. This price is firm for reservations made between June 1 and June 30, 2007, and is available on a first-come-first-served basis. After June 30, any seats left will be released for purchase at the then going rate.

Club members can make reservations now with an initial deposit of $100 for each reservation made with final payment due by August 10, 2007. Call Terumi Brandon, Hawaiian Vacations Group Coordinator at (907) 261-2746, or toll free at 1 800 770 2700 to make your reservations.

Note: The following week, the Alaska Federation of Natives is holding their convention at Fairbanks, Alaska. AFN is the largest native organization in Alaska, consisting of 17 native corporations, 12 regional nonprofit and tribal consortiums. Mission is to enhance cultural, economic, and political voice of the entire Alaskan Native community. Their website provides information on the convention and has a listing of resolutions passed at last year's convention, <http://www.nativefederation.org/>. October 22 and 23 will consist of their youth and elders meeting; and actual convention is October 25 to 27.

For those interested in attending the AFN convention, there is no registration fee. Hawaiian Vacations has a flight that departs on October 12 and returns on October 27. Currently, cost is $513.30, plus tax of $64.70, for total of $578. Visit the AFN website for info on hotels; and you'll need to arrange flight to Fairbanks, Alaska.

CONVENTION SITE: HILTON ANCHORAGE

Room rate is $109 single/double, triple $129, and Quads $149, plus 12% bed tax. Hilton will extend the convention room rates three (3) days prior and three (3) days after convention based on availability. Deadline for room reservations is September 14, 2007 for these rates. After the deadline we may still request rooms based on availability at the then prevailing rate.

Aloha! Nake'u Awai sends...

"An Afternoon to Honor A King"

Honolulu fashion designer and show producer Nake'u Awai is at it again--this time to honor King Kamehameha the Great, the father of a Hawaiian nation, and an inspiration to all fathers of Hawai'i.

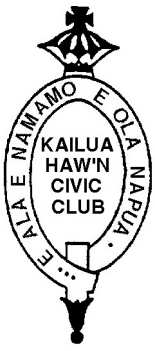

This free and open to the public fashion show is a true Nake'u extravaganza--complete with the Kamehameha Alumni Glee Club singing Kamehameha inspired songs, Aunty Aggie Cope from Waiana'e reading excerpts from Kamehameha, the Boy who Would be King, the Royal Court in attendance, Harry Owen's songs sung by Aunty Havana MacLafferty, hula and old time Hawaiian music presented by the Hawaiian Hall of Fame serenaders as well as a bevy of fashion mavens and fathers decked out in stylish aloha garb.

All this is taking place at the Ward Warehouse' Amphitheatre, outside of the Native Books/Na Mea Hawai 'i store on Sunday, June 10th at noon. Come early to get a great seat and join the fun.

In Hawaiian circles, Nake'u's fashion shows are legendary--for their flair, grace, humor and fashion! Nake'u Awai is a father in his own right, helping a generation of fashion designers in Hawai 'i find their roots, and flourish with locally inspired fabrics and designs. His shop on Houghtailing in Kalihi is a mecca for locals looking for the perfect wedding ensemble, beauty pageant look, or one of a kind gown. Nake'u introduces his new line once a year at his annual holiday fashion show. This sold out event is the height of the local fashion scene with everyone in attendance decked out in lei and fancy mu'umu'u. Nake'u has been dressing the best dressed Hawaiian men and women for over thirty years.

When Nake'u's feeling whimsical and high spirited--he puts on a free fashion show for community, and this year--fathers have struck his fancy, and his great aloha for the father of a nation, King Kamehameha allows us all to join in the celebration.

For more information, contact Nake'u Awai 841-1819 or Maile Meyer 783-2786
