

65TH HOLOKŪ BALL

MARCH 5, 2011

A sumptuous dinner, silent auction, entertainment, and Hawaiian elegance. These are all elements of the 65th Holokū Ball which will be held on Saturday, March 5, 2011 at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. Proceeds from the event provide post-high school scholarship funds for college education. With this year's theme of Ho'oilina Ola ("Living Legacies"), the honorees are Dr. Isabella Kauakea Aiona Abbott (posthumous), Thomas Kaulukukui Jr., and Leinā'ala Kalama Heine.

Invitations were mailed in January, and reservations are "first-come, first-served" with payment.

Isabella Kauakea Aiona Abbott, Ph.D (1919 – 2010) – Born in Hāna, Maui, Isabella Abbott learned early on from her Hawaiian mother and grandmother about Hawaiian limu and native flora, and became the world-renown authority on limu and Hawaiian ethnobotany. Her long career at the University of Hawai'i was preceded by a 30 year tenure at Stanford University. Dr. Abbott, a Kamehameha Schools graduate, was the first Hawaiian to receive a Ph.D in science.

Thomas Ka'auwai Kaulukukui Jr. – A 1977 graduate of the William S. Richardson School of Law, Tommy Kaulukukui Jr. served as a Circuit Court judge, chair of Lili'uokalani Trust, coach, mentor, and 'ōlohe lua – Hawaiian martial arts master teacher. Tommy is considered an exemplary Hawaiian role model, and fosters excellence through knowledge, leadership, discipline and hardwork, and nurtures mana in others.

Leinā'ala Kalama Heine – Kumu hula, educator, dancer, entertainer, Leinā'ala Heine is a renaissance leader in the Hawaiian community. Of pure Hawaiian descent, 'Ala is the daughter of George and Rebecca Kalama. A student of Vicky 'Ī'i Rodrigues, Rose Ahakuelo, Joe Kahā'ulelio and many others, 'Ala graduated as kumu hula through 'ūniki rites from the legendary Maiki Aiu Lake. In 2010, on the 35th anniversary of her own hula school, Nā Pualei O Likolehua, 'Ala graduated 13 kumu hula (master teachers).

NĀ PAHU 'ELIMA: The Five Boxes

HCCH history preserved by Tūtū Sarah Kauka in well-kept files

Aloha
pumehana e nā
hoa lālā o ka
'ahahui –
warm greetings to fellow club members –

2011 got off to a great start with a general membership meeting and luncheon at the Elk's Club at Kāneloa, Waikīkī, in January. With the excitement of the NFL playoffs on the LCD screen and cresting waves outside at Kalehuawehe, our members were energized and recommitted to each other and to the objectives set forth by Prince Kalaniana'ole when he founded our club in December 1918: the elevation of the social and economic status of all Hawaiians and increased pride and identity in our Hawaiian heritage.

Hawaiian heritage manifests in many ways. For some, carving out slivers of time for cultural activities and pursuits meets that objective. My thoughts are that by infusing no'ono'o Hawai'i (Hawaiian thought) into all that we do, heritage pride will come forth in a big way. At the membership meeting, mo'olelo (stories) were told about O'ahu chiefs, history and place names. Songs for Waikīkī including the classic Makee 'Ailana were discussed and sung, shedding new light (old light) on songs we knew well, but at a superficial level, at best. More stories and more mele will be shared at HCCH gatherings throughout the year.

Economic well-being is achieved, in part, through education. On that note, our Holokū Ball committee, under the leadership of Hope Pelekikena Anita Mae Nāone, is working diligently on producing another successful event on behalf of the HCCH Scholarship Fund. This event is a costly one – to the point where general seating tickets ($150) are virtually a “wash.” That said, our net profits are generated largely through corporate sponsor tables and the silent auction. We need your help in both areas. Our annual Holokū Ball raises tens of thousands of dollars for the education of our people.

Social status can be realized through civic (community) involvement. Our participation and leadership in the annual convention of the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs is a great way to learn, develop and hone leadership skills. This November's convention will be at Turtle Bay, and we encourage all members not only to attend, but also to stay at that beautiful Ko'olauloa property adjacent to Kawela Bay. This helps our host, the O'ahu Council, meet its quota. Let's plan early for a few days on O'ahu's north shore.

Let's all commit to nurturing our 'ōiwi (native) heritage every day. Language, history, culture, geography, mythology, genealogy – whatever interests you, go deeper. A great Hawaiian language online resource is www.ulukau.org. Ma laila kahi maika'i e ho'omaka ai – That's a great place to start.

Looking forward to a great year!

Me ke kūpa'a, me ke aloha pū,

Manu Boyd
Pelekikena

WAIHONA KŌKUA HO'ONA'UAO (Scholarships)

March 1, 2011, is the opening date on our club website for HCCH's scholarship program. Last year, HCCH awarded $64,750 to 53 qualifying applicants. While we are still recovering from the downturn in the economy, many students continue to face challenges to obtain funding for college. HCCH takes pride in continuing to support students who work hard toward completing their education in an effort to make a better life for themselves and their 'ohana and also to support our Hawaiian communities and ailing economy.

Holokū Ball is right around the corner. This event determines the funding we are able to award each year to recipients. Please encourage your family and friends to support the Holokū Ball so we can continue to support these deserved recipients. This is the time to notify your family and friends that HCCH, as well as other Hawaiian civic clubs, are here to support them and realize our founder's mission. For additional information and criteria, visit our website at

2011 AHCC CONVENTION

On November 7-14, 2010, Native Hawaiians from around the country convened at the Keauhou Beach Resort & Spa, in South Kona for the 2011 AHCC Convention. A total of 18 Delegates, 16 Alternates, 16 Members, and three Guests represented HCCH at the annual convention. This year HCCH sent 10 new student members who attend Chaminade University to participate in committees and plenary proceedings. Total overall attendance included 283 Delegates, 72 Alternates, 20 At-large, 93 Members and 21 Guests, representing 59 Hawaiian Civic Clubs throughout the nation.

Mahalo for 32 HCCH Choir members who participated in 'Aha Mele. Our choice song at 'Aha Mele this year was "Hu'ehu'e," and about 20 members went on a cultural huaka'i to Hu'ehu'e Ranch. It was inspiring for us to get to actually see the Ranch we were singing about and to hear about its history. This huaka'i ended with lunch at 'Big Island Grinds' where at least three of our gang took on the challenge of their monster loco moco. At 'Aha Mele, the HCCH Choir placed second for $200.

GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING

The first general membership meeting of 2011 was held on January 16 at the Elks Club in Waikiki. About 48 members attended the meeting to kick off the new year. Led by Pelekikena Manu Boyd, the meeting was filled with a cultural history of various moku on O'ahu and musical pieces such as "Makee Ailana" and "Ku'u Home o Keaukaha."

The business matters of the meeting focused upcoming club highlights for 2011. March is a very busy month for the club with the Holokū Ball and Prince Kūhiō festivities to mark our founder's birthday. In June, the club has a cleanup planned at Mauna'ala. In addition, a general membership meeting with cultural activities will take place over the summer. Stay tuned for further details about the next general membership meeting!
